Form 9465
(Rev. December 2026)
Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

Payment Plan Request

Go to www.irs.gov/Form9465 for instructions and the latest information.
If you are filing this form with your tax return, attach it to the front of the return.
See separate instructions.

OMB No. 1545-0074

Tip: If you owe $50,000 or less in combined tax, penalties, and interest, you may be able to avoid filing Form 9465 and establish a payment plan (installment agreement) online, even if you haven't yet received a tax bill. If you establish your payment plan using the Online Payment Agreement application, your user fee that you pay will be lower than it would be with Form 9465. To apply for an Online Payment Agreement, go to www.irs.gov/OPA or scan this QR code:

Long-Term Payment Plan Request

This request is for Form(s) (for example, Form 1040 or Form 941) _____

Enter tax year(s) or period(s) involved (for example, 2023 and 2024, or January 1, 2023, to June 30, 2023) _____

I authorize the U.S. Treasury and its designated Financial Agent to initiate a monthly ACH debit (electronic withdrawal) entry to the financial institution account indicated for payments of my federal taxes owed, and the financial institution to debit the entry to this account. This authorization is to remain in full force and effect until I notify the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent to terminate the authorization. To revoke payment, I must contact the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent at 1-800-829-1040 no later than 14 business days prior to the payment (settlement) date. I also authorize the financial institutions involved in the processing of the electronic payments of taxes to receive confidential information necessary to answer inquiries and resolve issues related to the payments.

12c Low-income taxpayers only. If you're unable to make electronic payments through a debit instrument by providing your banking information on lines 12a and 12b, check this box and your user fee will be reimbursed upon completion of your payment plan. See instructions . . . . . ☐

By signing and submitting this form, I authorize the IRS to contact third parties and to disclose my tax information to third parties in order to process this request and administer the agreement over its duration. I also agree to the terms of this agreement, as provided in the instructions, if it's approved by the IRS.
